Forest Friends!

Want to help your child learn about their emotions at an early age?

Come join us at the Paramus Public Library for an educational storytelling program called Forest Friends that will help students from kindergarten to second grade learn various social and emotional life skills. Children will hear engaging stories from our Forest Friends puppets over two sessions covering topics such as feelings and communication, and decision making on April 24th and May 8th. Registration is required.
